

TULALIP RESORT CASINO FEATURED IN 2008 'PEOPLE'S PICKS' AWARDS FROM NWJOBS.COM

Tulalip Resort Casino selected as a favorite hospitality industry employer in the Northwest

Tulalip, Wash. (January 28, 2009) – Tulalip Resort Casino, the Northwest's #1 place for fun, was selected by NWJobs.com as one of the best Northwest employers in the hospitality industry in the job-search website's 2008 'People's Picks' awards. Nominations for favorite local employers were made by visitors to the website in 30 unique categories for small and large businesses and a variety of industries.

"We are extremely proud to be selected as one of the Northwest's favorite employers," said Ken Kettler, president and COO of Tulalip Resort Casino. "Each of our employees plays an essential role in the success of our property as a resort destination, and we are pleased that they have contributed to our selection on NWJobs.com as one of the region's best places to work."

Employees at Tulalip Resort Casino receive excellent medical and dental coverage and access to an employee assistance program that provides referrals to counseling programs and workshops that address daily life challenges. In addition, employees enjoy perks including on-site massage therapists, discounts on dining and merchandise, and membership for the health and fitness center. Tulalip Resort Casino currently employs more than 2,400 people throughout its resort operations.
