

QUIL CEDA CREEK CASINO WELCOMES GUESTS TO PERFORMANCES AT “THE STAGE” STARTING IN JULY; NEW STATE-OF-THE-ART ENTERTAINMENT VENUE OPENS FOR LIVE MUSIC, DANCE AND LIVE SPORTS VIEWING

TULALIP, WA (June 28, 2021) - Quil Ceda Creek Casino today announced a full line-up of local and regional performers as it welcomes guests to “The Stage,” the casino’s exciting entertainment venue and nightclub, beginning July 2.

Throughout July and August, “The Stage” will host a variety of entertainers, including Quil Ceda Creek Casino favorites from the previous “Q” casino property, as well as new faces. Though the new Quil Ceda Creek Casino opened in February, live entertainment and dance music at “The Stage” was not scheduled due to COVID-19 guideline considerations.

Starting in July, “The Stage” will showcase its state-of-the-art sound and custom lighting system with music each Friday (rock ‘n roll) and Saturday (country) night, with 10 groups slated to take the stage on weekends throughout July. “The Stage” also welcomes seniors from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. on Wednesdays throughout July and August with piano music selections. There is no charge for admission to any of the events.

“The Stage” seats up to 189 guests with comfortable booths, tables and chairs, and seating at the bar. It is served by its own walk-up beer and wine bar flanked by two massive 19-foot-wide curved video walls. Patrons can purchase items at the exciting array of food venues throughout “The Q.”

When music isn’t on the calendar, “The Stage” features live sports and other events on its four massive video walls, which utilize the Northwest’s most advanced LED technology for the ultimate viewing experience. Spanning a total of 896-square-feet and with 13 million pixels, it has the flexibility to display up to 10 different views simultaneously.
